

THE DENIZENS OF TUNIS

LIFE AMONG THE MIGHTY ARABS AND BERBERS.

People Who Do Not Know What Home Is—An Exhibition by such Characters.

In Tunis, North Africa, there are ten thousands of poor Arabs and Berbers, who have no homes or abodes, says a writer in the Boston Herald. They are migratory in their habits, and are constantly changing about from place to place. They crowd on black beds, but do not even have the usual household furniture. They are to be seen in the streets, and they are to be seen in the streets, and they are to be seen in the streets...
